Bonus Puzzle Pack

10 New Arizona Word Searches

A companion gift for readers of Arizona Memories

EXTRA LARGE PRINT • FOR ADULTS & SENIORS

Welcome, neighbor.

Thank you for joining our circle of readers at Sunroom Press. Inside this companion pack are ten brand-new Arizona puzzles you won't find anywhere in the main books. Every page brings you a clean, extra-large grid and a verified Arizona fact to enjoy over morning coffee — just like Arizona Memories.

HOW TO PLAY: Each puzzle hides 15 themed words inside an extra-large grid. Words run forward, backward, up, down, and diagonally. Circle or highlight each word as you spot it, then check it off the list below. If you ever get stuck, full solutions wait at the back, printed large and right-side up.

Print these pages one at a time, or print the whole collection to keep by your favorite armchair. We'll be in touch by note when new reader puzzles are ready, along with a quiet first look at our next journey: Florida Memories.

Warmly, Sunroom Press

PUZZLE 2

Cosanti of Paradise Valley

On a quiet Paradise Valley street, Italian-born architect Paolo Soleri founded Cosanti in 1956, pouring concrete over mounded desert earth to raise his earth-cast domes and studios. It is still there today, its foundry still casting the famous bronze windbells.

Mystery Castle of Phoenix

Told he was dying of tuberculosis, Seattle father Boyce Gulley slipped away to Phoenix's South Mountain and spent a decade hand-building an 18-room castle of stone, car parts, rail tracks and telephone poles — for his daughter Mary Lou, who had begged for a castle the tide couldn't wash away. She found it after his 1945 death, moved in and shared it with visitors for 60 years.
